Louise Inventory—For Use with Rape Victims [July 25, 2013 version]

I want you to talk about your experience. I know this is sensitive and painful. We have interviewed several victims here; we have heard just about everything. You are not alone. What emotions did you have; what emotions do you have, right now? Talk. Talk freely. Tell me about your life before you were raped, and then about what it was like to be raped. Then, I am going to ask you how your life has been since you have been raped.

OK- pardon me for asking this, but as a summary: when were you raped, and how old were you at the time?

PART 1—Life before rape

How was your life before rape? What were you doing? Going to school/work?

How was your physical health before the rape?

What was your experience with boys or men? How did you feel about them?

When did you begin to menstruate? Have you had any children?

PART 2—The rape

When were you raped? How old were you?

Where you were raped?

Can you tell me a little detail of the day? Do you see or hear or feel anything different?

Five minutes before the rape, what was the situation?

Were you raped at home? Were you alone? Did anyone else get hurt?

What did you see that made you feel nervous?

What did you hear that made you feel nervous?

What were you thinking when they approached you?

What other thoughts went through your mind?

When did you realize their intention was to rape you?

Please describe rapist #1: tall/short/heavy/ bad breath/ smelly?

What weapons did he have?

Please describe rapist #2: tall/short/heavy/ bad breath/ smelly?

What weapons did he have?

What did #1 say to #2? What language did they speak?

How many people were involved? Who were they? Did they hit you?

Why did they rape you?

Did someone hold you down while the other raped you?

Were you raped in a room? On a bed?

Did you try to get away? Did you resist?

How do you feel during the event? (Motionless? Numb?)

What other words did rapist #1 say?

What other words did rapist #2 say?

What were you thinking during? (Helpless?)

Did you faint/unconscious?

Did blood come out down there after the rape?

Where did you have blood? Did you see blood anywhere?

Did you suffer any injuries to your face? To your arms/legs/back?

PART 3—the first hour after the rape

How did you feel?

What did the rapist say?

Where were your clothes? What did you wear afterwards?

What thoughts went through your mind?

Thank you for your comments. What other thoughts went through your mind?

PART 4—the first 30 days after the rape

How did you feel after? (I felt shame/ I hated my body.)

Did you see the doctor after being raped?

What did the doctor say?

Did the doctor give you any medicine or treatments?

How was your physical health after the rape?

Who was the first person you told? What were his/her reactions?

PART 5- the first six months afterwards

Were you treated differently in your society?

Did you ever see the rapist again?

What feelings about men did you have?

Can you remember the first time you had sex after being raped? (Pleasant? Fun? Painful?)

Did you enjoy sex?

During intimate moments, what thoughts went through your mind?

Did you have nightmares? Flashbacks?

What was your physical health, six months later?

What was your emotional health?

Before we get to the present, to today, anything else that you felt or experienced that was painful?

PART 6 – your physical health today

Do you have any physical problems? Infections?

PART 7- your emotional health today

How is your emotional health today?

How do you feel towards men?

Do you have a hard time forming relationships?

What are your emotional feelings today?

Do you have any flashbacks or nightmares?

For how many years have you been suffering?

For how many more years will you suffer?

What thoughts go through your mind when you see a doctor in United States?

Have you gone to counseling?

Have you been tested for HIV or STDs?

PART 8 what do you see in your future?

How does your future look?

Is your future “short”?

What do you predict will happen?

Anything else?
